Cannabidiol (CBD) is an active ingredient in cannabis derived from the hemp plant. It may help treat conditions like pain, insomnia, and anxiety.² Question. Does my dog need drugs for Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder (OCD)? I was watching the news and it said if a dog chases its tail, runs in circles, bites at himself and/or in the air, and/or whines, etc., that it probably has OCD just like humans and needs medication such as Prozac or Zoloft. I totally understand how you must be feeling right now. I was in that place several times in my life. Believe me, it's temporary. When our life goes through frustrating phases, most of us tend to find every possible reason to be sad. This sadness ...Deborah S. Friedman, D.V.M. and diplomate with the American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists has several explanations. The third eyelid acts as the dog's "windshield-wiper" for the cornea, effectively removing debris or mucus off of it. This membrane is responsible for producing about one-third of the dog's tears, since it has one of the most important tear glands attached at its base ...
